

Shareholder's Agreements – Issues to Consider

- shareholder's duties in relation to disclosure and to account to the other shareholders
- buy-sell provisions, tag along provisions and drag along provisions
- calling of Board Meetings and the operation of the Board
- limits on directors' activities on behalf of the company
- limits on new issues of securities
- shareholder's duties in relation to disclosure
- what happens on death of a shareholder (or some other mental/physical incapacity)
- what happens on divorce of shareholder
- what happens on bankruptcy of a shareholder
- limits on mortgaging and charging shares
- limits on trustee shareholders
- limits on corporate Shareholders
- restraints on competitive activity (during and after a shareholders' involvement with company)
- dispute resolution

For further information, contact:

Simon Singer

Phone (02) 9212 1099

Email ssinger@dls-lawyers.com